Souvenir Directory

OF

Salem Methodist Episcopal Church

Pleasantville, N. J.

1906

Rev. H. F. PARKER, Pastor

Salutatory

This little Directory is presented by the Pastor to the members and probationers, as well as the friends, of Salem Methodist Episcopal Church, as a souvenir and reference book, showing the names of all church officers, societies, committees, etc., as well as the members and probationers at beginning of July, 1906.

It is hoped that this little souvenir may not only serve as a book of reference, but also as a daily reminder of the church you love, and that it may prove to be a bond uniting the old and new members more closely to each other in the love of Christ.

Special thanks are due to the business people, whose advertisements and support have made it possible to produce this booklet without any cost to the church.

Strangers, who may receive this Directory are cordially welcomed at the church.

Historical Sketch of Salem M. E. Church, Pleasantville, N. J.

Salem M. E. Church was built in the year 1851 on the 29th day of March. In the year 1870 it was set apart from the Absecon M. E. Church as a separate church. In the year 1889 the present edifice was built and the church rededicated on the 20th day of November, 1889.

The pastors who have served the charge are as follows:

Rev. F. Stinger (supply)	1870 to 1871
Rev. A. Atwood	1872 to 1873
Rev. J. S. Gaskill	1874 to 1876
Rev. W. N. Ogborn	1877 to 1878
Rev. S. S. Belville	1879 to 1881
Rev. J. R. Thompson	1882 to 1883
Rev. Alfred Wagg	1884 to 1886
Rev. H. S. Norris	1887
Rev. J G. Edwards	1888
Rev. J. B. Dare.	1889
Rev. C. K. Fleming	1890 to 1894
Rev. Levi Larew	1895 to 1896
Rev, F. L. Jewett	1897 to 1900
Rev, L. O. Manchester Rev. J. B. Westcott	1900 to 1903
Rev. H. F. Parker	from 1903

During the past 26 years, since the church was built several improvements were made in the church edifice, adding to its value as well as to its appearance.

The church membership has continually increased. Successful revival meetings were held at various periods.

During the year 1906 a gracious revival took place in the church resulting in the conversion of 150 souls, many of whom united with the various churches round about. The Salem charge has a convenient parsonage and a church property in excellent condition.

REV. H. F. PARKER, Pastor.
